Laua Honors Fraternity

A Laua honoring members of the Theta Xi Omega fraternity was held Saturday evening by the Theta Omega Auxiliary at the home of Miss Carlene Freitas, 3527 Madison Court. Joan Freitas and Ted Winters, president of the fraternity, entertained the 45 guests present by giving lessons in Hula dancing.

Dinner featuring a Hawaiian style menu was served by Mrs. John Freitas who has just returned from a two week stay in the islands. Her husband was a crew member of the "Kamalii" during the trans-Pacific race to Honolulu. Decorations for the event were arranged by the auxiliary and fraternity members: Dick Moon, Eric Karsgor, Wayne Metzger, and Richard Cornwall. The island decor featured Chinese lanterns, palms, fishnet and Hawaiian fruit. Following the dinner those attending spent the evening in dancing.

Probe Death of Torrance Man in Fiancee Chase

Death of a Torrance man who collapsed while reportedly chasing his fiancee, was under investigation by sheriff's homicide officers this week.

The dead man was identified as Howard Hirdler, 28, of 1639 W. 203rd St. He suddenly died at the site of a 60-acre brush fire near Calabasas.

According to stories told to investigators, Hirdler and his brother, Keith, 36, got into a fight because Howard was allegedly abusive to his fiancee, Jacqueline Burns.

After the tiff, Howard Hirdler started to chase Miss Burns. After a minute she looked around and found him on the ground next to a fire engine which had been used to fight a brush fire.

Howard Hirdler was pronounced dead on arrival at Woodland Park Community Hospital.

PTA Council Representatives Attend Workshop

Torrance Council PTA was represented by Mrs. Paul Brasswell, second vice president and Mrs. M. D. Scoles, magazine chairman at last Thursday's Thirty-third District magazine workshop.

The workshop, held at the Tenth District Health Center, Los Angeles, was conducted by Mrs. Joseph Hook, editor of the California Parent-Teacher Magazine and Mrs. H. O. Boyvey, State magazine chairman.

Following the workshop which was held in the Solorium the group toured the magazine offices. Arrangements for the meeting were under the direction of Mrs. T. J. Drake of Long Beach, Thirty-third district magazine chairman.
